

Christian Health Aid (CHA) is administered on behalf of its members by the Church of God in Christ, Mennonite. Although CHA is not subject to state and federal insurance regulation, certain states require publication of the following disclosure to meet exemption qualifications:

DISCLOSURES

For all states not listed below:

NOTICE: Christian Health Aid is not insurance or an insurance policy nor is it offered through an insurance company. Whether anyone chooses to assist you with your medical bills will be totally voluntary, as no other member will be compelled by law to contribute toward your medical bills. As such, Christian Health Aid should never be considered to be insurance. Whether you receive any payments for medical expenses and whether or not Christian Health Aid continues to operate, you are always personally responsible for the payment of your own medical bills. Christian Health Aid is not subject to the regulatory requirements or consumer protections of your particular State's Insurance Code or Statutes.

Alabama Code Title 22-6A-2

Notice: The organization facilitating the sharing of medical expenses is not an insurance company, and neither its guidelines nor plan of operation is an insurance policy. Whether anyone chooses to assist you with your medical bills will be totally voluntary because no other participant will be compelled by law to contribute toward your medical bills. As such, participation in the organization or a subscription to any of its documents should never be considered to be insurance.
