

Children's Adoption Aid

Financial aid for adoptive parents

A program of the Church of God

In Christ, Mennonite

- ⚧ Children's Adoption Aid (CAA) is a mutual aid plan operated by the Church of God in Christ, Mennonite to financially assist member couples who adopt children.
- ⚧ To qualify for benefits from the plan, couples who are adopting a child must enroll in the plan and contribute $1,500 to CAA.
- ⚧ Because adoptive parents often find it easier to pay in installments, this $1,500 contribution is set up to be payable over thirty months at $50 per month, but can be paid in full or paid off early.
- ⚧ The balance of the funding comes from donations received from (a) members who are not planning to adopt, but enroll in a supportive enrollment at a cost of $50 per month for as long as they wish and (b) free will donations from individuals or congregations.
- ⚧ There is a three-month waiting period after enrollment before becoming eligible for benefits. An adoption finalized during the waiting period will qualify for benefits at the end of the waiting period.
- ⚧ Benefits are available for one adoption per enrollment after finalization of the adoption and upon completion of a CAA Benefit Request Form.
- ⚧ CAA shares up to $15,000 per adoption. In the event the adoption costs less than $15,000, the benefit is limited to the cost of the adoption. These benefits are paid at 100% with no further member responsibility deducted.

- ⚙️ Benefits are available even though the member contribution of $1,500 has not yet been paid in full, provided their monthly payments are current, the three-month waiting period has been satisfied, and the adoption has been finalized.
- ⚙️ Members who have finished paying their $1,500 contribution but who have not yet finalized their adoption continue to be eligible for benefits until they have finalized their adoption.
- ⚙️ Only adoptions that are finalized after enrolling in the CAA are considered eligible for benefits.
